MESSRS. HILTON, HUGHES & Co.,

Successors to A. T. STEWART & CO.,

Announce that they propose withdrawing from the wholesale trade and concentrate their undivided efforts upon their retail business, which has been increasing to such an extent as to render necessary every newly added trade facility, and to require the entire space in their warehouse buildings.

In carrying out this purpose, their entire wholesale stock will from time to time and as rapidly as possible, be transferred to their retail counters at prices which will not only attract all classes of customers, but the cheapness of the goods will in addition be a pleasing surprise.

This transfer covers an enormous stock of goods, amounting in value to millions of dollars, which will be offered to customers at such prices as will close it out with despatch.

Our force of clerks is already engaged in marking down these goods to prices below cost.

NONE OF THESE GOODS WILL BE SOLD TO DEAL-

ERS. They are intended to be offered to our Retail customers only.

Particulars later on. Watch our advertisements for bargains in every Department.
